General Counsel

Company Overview

Our client is a privately owned, multi-sector Nigerian energy and infrastructure group with decades of experience across oil and gas, power, renewable energy, infrastructure development, and data-driven assets. Operating from offices in Abuja, Lagos, London, and Houston, the group has activities spanning Nigeria, the UK, and other international markets.

The organization is currently in an active growth and consolidation phase, managing complex contractual structures, government interfaces, and cross-border transactions. Recognized for its significant contributions to offshore petroleum exploration in Nigeria, the group provides a broad range of services including geophysical solutions, petroleum economics advisory, and infrastructure development, positioning it as a trusted partner in Nigeria's energy and natural resources sector.

Description

Acts as the principal legal and commercial adviser to the MD/CEO, Board, and Executive Team. Provides strategic, pragmatic legal leadership across transactions, governance, regulatory engagement, and risk management. Enables disciplined growth, protects value, and supports confident decision-making across the Group's operations and investments.

Owes and leads the group's legal function, setting standards, frameworks, and capabilities while ensuring accountability for legal and contractual outcomes. Serves as a key external representative with regulators, partners, and stakeholders, and provides steady judgment in complex, high-risk, or sensitive matters, safeguarding the group's integrity, reputation, and long-term value.
